Are you a parent, grandparent, Carer, relative or friend of a child/adult with special needs or a disability? Yes?

...then these workshops are a must for you!

Caring for someone can be a bit daunting at times. Often wonder if things could be better? Of course, there is always room for improvement in everything we do and here are a series of workshops that can really help and make a difference to our daily lives and to our families. This series is aimed at parent carers who wish to have fun, meet other parent carers that want to make life easier and learn new strategies that can make a very real difference.

LPCF proudly presents Hil Gibb to run these workshops. Hil is a successful Master Practitioner and Coach in Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), with a Masters Degree in Leadership. She loves working with a wide range of individuals facing significant, personal challenge as well as groups of varying sizes across business and education. Hil offers a fresh perspective, bold problem-solving and unorthodox strategies. Her main strengths lie in her ability to connect with people; motivating and developing them to think actively, flexibly and creatively. She relishes new challenges and is committed to adding value to, and facilitating the growth of individuals and teams.

Hil's dubious claim to fame is that she almost killed Stephen Hawking!

Workshop 1: Why Me?

Date: Wednesday 6th January 2021 1pm

Think back to when you first heard about the diagnosis. Back to when it became official... that moment when your loved one 'became disabled' or had "additional Needs". Maybe you had moments of doubting your sanity to get your concerns recognised. How did that feel?

Was there guilt, blame, anger, sadness, denial?

Think back to when you broke 'the news' to family, friends and colleagues. How did that feel? Are some of those feelings still with you?

The 'Why me?' workshop is designed to enable you to....

- Explore the cocktail of emotions experienced by the carer
- Remove the pain and power of those who can whip up that cocktail of emotion
- Learn how the 'power of now' can support you
- Know your negative triggers and reduce (or even remove) them

Workshop 2: Space for self

Date: Wednesday 13th January 2021 1pm

As a carer of a person with additional needs, there may be many aspects and demands in your life that are often in profound conflict with each other, for example when you feel like you are juggling too many balls in the air at once?

This conflict can be damaging in terms of:

- generating guilt, divided loyalties and self-neglect.
- available time, energy, focus and concentration.
- reduced levels of health, well-being and laughter.

The Space for Self Workshop is designed to enable you to:

- reduce the internal conflict created by your various roles
- understand the value of 'the most important person'
- learn the value of being fully present
- remove the pain resulting from those who create angst without being in the room! plus much more.

Workshop 3: “Effective Communication” (1)

Date: Wednesday 20th January 2021 1pm

As a carer of a person with additional needs, you may experience many meetings with various agencies.

Whether these events run well, or otherwise, the experience and outcomes of any meeting can be greatly improved through effective communication.

This Effective Communication Workshop is designed to enable you to:

- feel more confident in a range of situations
- get your thoughts and feelings across effectively and more easily
- give and receive effective feedback
- handle potentially ‘sticky’ conversations well
- understand human behaviour and apply this understanding practically
- reduce stress and drains on time and energy

Everyone benefits from Effective Communication!

Workshop 4: “Effective Communication” (2)

Date: Wednesday 27th January 2021
1pm

The objectives of this workshop are the same as Workshop 3.

See Next page for further sessions

Workshop 5: Understanding Strategies

Date: Wednesday 3rd February 2021 1pm

How come, if you were to pick up your toothbrush with the 'wrong' hand, you'd find it difficult to continue with the task of brushing your teeth?

Well, every one of us has strategies for everything we do, and when that strategy is interrupted, it's really tricky for it to continue.

Some of our strategies are positive and help us move forward. Others are destructive and hold us back.

As a carer of a young person with additional needs, you may experience a range of behaviours and strategies that are inadvertently unhelpful to your child's progress or flexibility in an ever-changing world.

This Understanding Strategies Workshop is designed to enable you to:

- feel more confident when supporting your loved one
- explore the power of strategies over our behaviours
- reflect on your strategies and those of your loved one
- generate an 'action plan' for more positive outcomes
- reduce stress and drains on time and energy

Workshop 6: Resilience

Date: Wednesday 10th February 2021 1pm

The word 'Resilience' has become very widely used over the last couple of years.

And yet, as a carer, you'll have been doing resilience, to varying degrees, over a long period.

The thing is, we never really know how resilient we are until we are really tested.

This Resilience workshop is designed to enable you to:

- explore what is really meant by resilience
- increase our self-awareness around how we respond to those unexpected, challenging moments
- explore traits and strategies for high resilience
- understand how a permanent state of resilience isn't necessarily good for us
- look at the human response to change
- consider how we grow resilience in our children
